Daniel Garcia appointed Deputy Chief Operating Officer (DCOO) for France & Central Europe

DUFRY is proud to announce that Daniel Garcia (42) has been promoted to the position of the Deputy Chief Operating Officer (DCOO) of France and Central Europe effective as of March 1, 2009.

Daniel Garcia's professionalism is based 18 years working for Dufry in different positions at the headquarters in Basel as well as in the operations in North Africa and Eurasia. Garcia started his career 1991 as an Assistant Product Manager. 1996 he became the responsible Manager for Product Marketing and in 1998 the Product Manager for Spirits. In 2001 Garcia was sent out abroad first as the Deputy General Manager in Sharjah and later in 2002 as the Commercial Director in Tunisia.

From 2003 to 2007 Garcia worked as Director of Regional Category Management in Sharjah. In 2007 Garcia returned to Basel where he took charge of the position as Retail Operations Manager and later on, in April 2008, as Group Category Manager Watches, Jewellery & Confectionary.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank Daniel Garcia for his excellent contribution to the company and wish him every success in his new position.
