Eduardo Pereira is new Procurement Director for the Americas

We are pleased to announce that Mr. Eduardo Pereira (46) has been appointed as the Procurement Director for the Americas. He will be responsible for all procurement in the Region 4 and 5 which include the USA, Caribbean, Mexico, Brazil and the rest of the Dufry operations in the Americas region. He will have a double line of report to Mr. José Gonzalez, COO R4 North America and Caribbean as well as to Mr. Nigel Keal, Dufry's Global Procurement Director.

Mr. Pereira will be based in Miami and São Paulo.

Mr. Pereira is an economist with a MBA from Insead France. He has been with Brasif for 20 years. In the first 10 years he worked through all areas in Brasif and was the International Vice President responsible for all International Operations. In the last ten years he held the function of Purchase Director for all Brasif Retail Operations.

The strong knowledge and experience of Mr. Pereira is a major asset in further strengthening Dufry's procurement department.
